

Westvlees – Flexi-job cutting room

Looking for a flexi-job?

Are you looking for a flexi-job? Are you interested in the food industry and would you like to be part of a leading company in pork processing?

Then a flexi-job as a production worker at Westvlees is exactly what you're looking for!

As a flexi worker at Westvlees, you will be part of our production team, where you can carry out a fixed task in our cutting rooms. You will have the opportunity to schedule one or more fixed day(s) together with the production manager.

What do we expect from you?

- Enthusiasm and motivation to work in a production environment.
- Willingness to learn and perform different tasks.
- Reliability and a sense of responsibility.
- Flexibility in working hours and tasks.
- You are available in the afternoon, starting from 12:30 pm.
- No experience required!

What do we offer you?

- Opportunities to gain valuable experience in the food industry.
- A pleasant working atmosphere within a team of motivated colleagues.
- A competitive salary (where, under certain conditions, the gross salary equals the net salary!).
